How did a scrappy bunch of Presbyterians who suspected that Jesus was serious about nonviolence even survive, much less thrive 75 years later?

Because PPF is serious about peace.

That's why we're celebrating our 75th year by building financial resources for the use of peace activists today and in the future. It's called the Endowment 75 Campaign and you can help!

The goal is to seek 3-year pledges (or one-time gifts) to grow PPF's current endowment fund to over $1 million. To do this, we must raise at least $400,000 in pledges or gifts by Oct. 1, 2019. Pledges can be paid over any of these years: 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022.

The good news: we've already received over $166,480 in pledges and gifts from PPF's dedicated Staff and Executive Committee members, our Endowment 75 Campaign Committee and a growing group of generous and committed supporters. Please consider how you and your family can participate in creating this legacy.

Because you are serious about peace.

This is “Extra-Mile” giving. Let's all keep up our regular support for PPF too! Please use the enclosed reply slip or pledge at presbypeacefellowship.org/endow75

Thank you!
Every day we watch a president ponder whether his legacy will be war or peace. Whether by accident or by political calculation, will he veer toward one or the other?

As Presbyterians living in the United States in 2019, we also ask: what is our legacy? In the poem he wrote for PPF’s 75th year, Barrie Shepherd lifts up:

Yet one further, fuller legacy was spoken of that night before he left the upper room.
“My peace I leave with you.”

On PPF’s 75th birthday, let us recommit ourselves to this peace legacy together. It’s not just 75 years. Through all of history and in all places, ordinary people like us have labored for peace and to lead their leaders to its legacy.

Blessed are the peacemakers. Let us find what we each can do, create and give for this legacy worth living.

June 20-27, 2020 General Assembly, Baltimore. Ask now about being a presbytery commissioner or advisory delegate!
Following on our last report, on May 14 the Presbytery of San Francisco voted unanimously to finalize divestment from fossil fuels as well as other environmentally harmful investments. The presbytery holds about $16M in investment accounts for the ongoing mission of the churches and for ministries within the Presbytery.

For the past three PCUSA General Assemblies, the Presbytery of San Francisco has joined others in calling the full denomination to divest from fossil fuels as an act of stewardship in the face of accelerating climate change. In the absence of national action, PCUSA Moderator Cindy Kohlmann challenged the presbytery to act on its own investments as a witness and example.

San Francisco Presbytery Associate for Mission and Church Assets Leonard Nielsen said, “I think this is going to be a great move. After we did the research, I am sort of surprised that the vote at GA didn’t go through. We can certainly be helpful in helping others to understand that this particular divestment is not as complicated or risky as it was even 12-18 months ago. The investment market is starting to offer some really attractive products due to growing demand, and we can be a part of driving that demand for environmentally responsible investing.”

General Assembly 2020 ACTIONS NOW

Fossil Free PCUSA and PPF have 2 projects for GA:

1. Encouraging more presbyteries to join San Francisco and Boston Presbyteries to divest themselves from fossil fuels. Let us know if you are interested in your helping presbytery to divest. We want to celebrate you!

2. Calling on presbyteries to support an overture to divest from the fossil fuel industry. We expect that the PCUSA committee, Mission Responsibility Through Investment, will call for divestment from several individual fossil fuel companies. But we long for a prophetic and moral move by our denomination to help create world-wide momentum for urgent change. The text of the overture will be ready in mid-August.
